She was arrested by Constable Bly ut. Succasuna, and Squire Brown, of Kenville, admitted her to ball for trial in the Morris County Court.

This is only the latest of a series of queer matrimental experiences for Mr. Bullock. Years ago he got a divorce in I tak from the wife of his young manhoot. Then he married again. A year ago wife No. 1 brought suit against him, and the courts deeded that the I tah divorce was not legal. Wife No. 2 then left him.

Then wife No. 1 got a divorce in this State from him.

Mr. Bullock was next forced to settle a suit brought by wife No. 2 to recover money she claimed she had loaned him to put into business.

Marriage seems to be a fallure with Thomas O. Bullock.

Perhaps Sept. 26, Instead of Oct. 5, to Accommodate Durraven.

NEWPORT, Aug. 16.—There is a big probability that the America's Cupraces will begin Sept. 28, instead of Oct. 5. Chairman James D. Smith, of the New York Yacht Club's Special Committee, says that Lord Durraven has expressed a request to have the race expriser, if, under the mutual agreement clause of the deed of the gift, the American boats would agree.

Three of the new big single stickers have been visited and the fourth is probably willing.

The matter will be definitely decided this afternoon. The Cup Committee are a unit in favor of allowing Lord Durraven a chance to escape the dangerous storms of a late return to England.
